PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING PROGRAMS REFERRAL

Call: 916-875-BABY Fax: 916-875-0860

Email: DHSMCAH@saccounty.net

DEEEDDAL COLIDOR
REFERRAL SOURCE:	Deferre	l D
Date:	Referred	д ву:
Phone:	E-Mail:
FAMILY INFORMATION
Parent/Guardian:		Date of Birth:
Address:		Male ☐ Female ☐	No Response □
City:		Zip Code:
Phone:		E-mail:
Ethnicity: White/Caucasian ☐ Black/African American ☐ Asian ☐ Hispanic ☐ Native American ☐ Pacific Islander ☐ Languages spoken:
Mother Pregnant: Due ☐			First Time Parent: Yes $\square$ No $\square$
List children age youngest to oldest		Child C:	Date of Birth:
Child A: Date	of Birth:	Child D:	Date of Birth:
Child B: Date	of Birth:	Child E:	Date of Birth:
FAMILY NEEDS/ADDITIONAL INFORMATION
I am aware my personal information may be shared with Sacramento County Maternal, Child & Adolescent Health Program for referral purposes.
Signature of Client:			ally advised of referral

REFERRAL CRITERIA EXAMPLES (not all-inclusive)

All Ages    Unstable Housing,   Five or more emergency room visits in a six-month period that could have been avoided with appropriate outpatient care or improved treatment adherence.	AGE	RFF	ERRAL CRITERIA
Five or more emergency room visits in a six-month period that could have been avoided with appropriate outpatient care or improved treatment adherence.		1141 appropriate outpatient care or improved treatment adherence.  Three or more hospital stays in a six-month period that could have been avoided with appropriate outpatient care or improved treatment adherence.  First time mother.  Mother or father with limited support and/or infant care knowledge or first time mont/parent.  Current substance misuse during pregnancy, substance misuse during pregnancy but has since stopped use, and/or substance misuse during previous pregnancies or within the last year.  History of maternal mental illness/developmental delays without treatment or services.  Maternal depression or history of post-partum depression.  Delivery with no or inadequate prenatal care.  History of abuse and/or neglect of other children.  Violence in home.  Physical symptoms/conditions that may complicate pregnancy: toxemia, pretern labor, severe nausea/vomiting, multiple gestation, gestational diabetes, severe anemia, inadequate or excessive weight gain, untreated or uncontrolled chronic illness.  Children  Preterm infant born at or before 34 weeks.  Low birth weight (2,499 g/ 5 lbs. 8.1 ounces or less).  Prenatal drug exposure and/or a positive toxicological screen. This also includes substance-exposed children.  Infant appearing to have acute withdrawal symptoms.  Failure to thrive/feeding issues.  Maladaptive parent/infant interactions (refusing to feed, threatening infant/child, threatening to leave with infant 4MA).  Newborn/infant who has physical or medical problems that may impact vital life functions including sustained hypoxia (lack of oxygen), pre or post-natal anomalles, or a life-threatening illness/condition such as respiratory distress syndrome.  Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.  Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by intervention services.  Caretaker has a significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services.  Caretaker has a spychiatric disorder that puts the ch	All Ages		Unstable Housing.
Three or more hospital stays in a six-month period that could have been avoided with appropriate outpatient care or improved treatment adherence.  Pregnancy    First time mother.			- · outpatient care or improved treatment adherence.    First time mother.
Pregnancy     First time mother.     Mother or father with limited support and/or infant care knowledge or first time mom/parent.     Current substance misuse during pregnancy, substance misuse during pregnancy but has since stopped use, and/or substance misuse during previous pregnancies or within the last year.   History of maternal mental illiness/developmental delays without treatment or services.   Maternal depression or history of post-partum depression.   Delivery with no or inadequate prenatal care.   History of abuse and/or neglect of other children.   Violence in home.   Physical symptoms/conditions that may complicate pregnancy: toxemia, preterm labor, severe nausea/vomiting, multiple gestation, gestational diabetes, severe anemia, inadequate or excessive weight gain, untreated or uncontrolled chronic illness.   Preterm infant born at or before 34 weeks.   Low birth weight (2,499 g/ 5 lbs. 8.1 ounces or less).   Prenatal drug exposure and/or a positive toxicological screen. This also includes substance-exposed children.   Infant appearing to have acute withdrawal symptoms.   Failure to thrive/feeding issues.   Maladaptive parent/infant interactions (refusing to feed, threatening infant/child, threatening to leave with infant AMA).   Newborn/infant who has physical or medical problems that may impact vital life functions including sustained hypoxia (lack of oxygen), pre or post-natal anomalies, or a life-threatening illness/condition such as respiratory distress syndrome.   Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.   Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.   Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.   Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.   Parent/Caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/or needs special Mother or father with limited support and/or infant care knowledge or first time mom/parent.
mom/parent.  Current substance misuse during pregnancy, substance misuse during pregnancy but has since stopped use, and/or substance misuse during previous pregnancies or within the last year.  History of maternal mental illness/developmental delays without treatment or services.  Maternal depression or history of post-partum depression.  Delivery with no or inadequate prenatal care.  History of abuse and/or neglect of other children.  Violence in home.  Physical symptoms/conditions that may complicate pregnancy: toxemia, preterm labor, severe nausea/vomiting, multiple gestation, gestational diabetes, severe anemia, inadequate or excessive weight gain, untreated or uncontrolled chronic illness.  Preterm infant born at or before 34 weeks.  Low birth weight (2,499 g/ 5 lbs. 8.1 ounces or less).  Prenatal drug exposure and/or a positive toxicological screen. This also includes substance-exposed children.  Infant appearing to have acute withdrawal symptoms.  Failure to thrive/feeding issues.  Maladaptive parent/infant interactions (refusing to feed, threatening infant/child, threatening to leave with infant AMA).  Newborn/infant who has physical or medical problems that may impact vital life functions including sustained hypoxia (lack of oxygen), pre or post-natal anomalies, or a life-threatening illness/condition such as respiratory distress syndrome.  Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.  Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.  Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services.  Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services.  Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.  Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.  Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/c	Pregnancy stopped use, and/or substance misuse during previous pregnancies or within the last year.  History of maternal mental illness/developmental delays without treatment or services.  Delivery with no or inadequate prenatal care. History of abuse and/or neglect of other children. Violence in home. Physical symptoms/conditions that may complicate pregnancy: toxemia, preterm labor, severe nausea/vomiting, multiple gestation, gestational diabetes, severe anemia, inadequate or excessive weight gain, untreated or uncontrolled chronic illness.  Children O-18  Children Preterm infant born at or before 34 weeks. Low birth weight (2,499 g/ 5 lbs. 8.1 ounces or less). Prenatal drug exposure and/or a positive toxicological screen. This also includes substance-exposed children. Infant appearing to have acute withdrawal symptoms. Failure to thrive/feeding issues. Maladaptive parent/infant interactions (refusing to feed, threatening infant/child, threatening to leave with infant AMA). Newborn/infant who has physical or medical problems that may impact vital life functions including sustained hypoxia (lack of oxygen), pre or post-natal anomalies, or a life-threatening illness/condition such as respiratory distress syndrome. Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages. Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages. Caretaker is medically non-compliant due to barriers in accessing care. Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk. At Risk Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services. Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk. Pamily has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers. Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers. Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, incl			mom/parent.
History of maternal mental illness/developmental delays without treatment or services.   Maternal depression or history of post-partum depression.   Delivery with no or inadequate prenatal care.   History of abuse and/or neglect of other children.   Violence in home.   Physical symptoms/conditions that may complicate pregnancy: toxemia, preterm labor, severe nausea/vomiting, multiple gestation, gestational diabetes, severe anemia, inadequate or excessive weight gain, untreated or uncontrolled chronic illness.   Preterm infant born at or before 34 weeks.   Low birth weight (2,499 g/ 5 lbs. 8.1 ounces or less).   Prenatal drug exposure and/or a positive toxicological screen. This also includes substance-exposed children.   Infant appearing to have acute withdrawal symptoms.   Failure to thrive/feeding (Issues.)   Maladaptive parent/infant interactions (refusing to feed, threatening infant/child, threatening to leave with infant AMA).   Newborn/infant who has physical or medical problems that may impact vital life functions including sustained hypoxia (lack of oxygen), pre or post-natal anomalies, or a life-threatening illness/condition such as respiratory distress syndrome.   Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.   Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by intervention services.   Caretaker has a syphilatric disorder that puts the child at risk.   At Risk   Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.   Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.   Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.   Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behavi
Maternal depression or history of post-partum depression.   Delivery with no or inadequate prenatal care.   History of abuse and/or neglect of other children.   Violence in home.   Physical symptoms/conditions that may complicate pregnancy: toxemia, preterm labor, severe nausea/vomiting, multiple gestation, gestational diabetes, severe anemia, inadequate or excessive weight gain, untreated or uncontrolled chronic illness.    Children
Delivery with no or inadequate prenatal care. History of abuse and/or neglect of other children. Violence in home. Physical symptoms/conditions that may complicate pregnancy: toxemia, preterm labor, severe nausea/vomiting, multiple gestation, gestational diabetes, severe anemia, inadequate or excessive weight gain, untreated or uncontrolled chronic illness.  Children Preterm infant born at or before 34 weeks. Usow birth weight (2,499 g/ 5 lbs. 8.1 ounces or less). Prenatal drug exposure and/or a positive toxicological screen. This also includes substance-exposed children. Infant appearing to have acute withdrawal symptoms. Failure to thrive/feeding issues. Maladaptive parent/infant interactions (refusing to feed, threatening infant/child, threatening to leave with infant AMA). Newborn/infant who has physical or medical problems that may impact vital life functions including sustained hypoxia (lack of oxygen), pre or post-natal anomalies, or a life-threatening illness/condition such as respiratory distress syndrome. Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages. Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages. Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services. Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.  At Risk Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services. Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues. Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers. Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations. One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance m
History of abuse and/or neglect of other children.  Violence in home.  Physical symptoms/conditions that may complicate pregnancy: toxemia, preterm labor, severe nausea/vomiting, multiple gestation, gestational diabetes, severe anemia, inadequate or excessive weight gain, untreated or uncontrolled chronic illness.  Children Preterm infant born at or before 34 weeks. Low birth weight (2,499 g/ 5 lbs. 8.1 ounces or less). Prenatal drug exposure and/or a positive toxicological screen. This also includes substance-exposed children. Infant appearing to have acute withdrawal symptoms. Failure to thrive/feeding issues. Maladaptive parent/infant interactions (refusing to feed, threatening infant/child, threatening to leave with infant AMA). Newborn/infant who has physical or medical problems that may impact vital life functions including sustained hypoxia (lack of oxygen), pre or post-natal anomalies, or a life-threatening illness/condition such as respiratory distress syndrome. Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages. Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages. Caretaker is medically non-compliant due to barriers in accessing care. Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.  At Risk Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services. Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues. Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues. Pamily has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers. Family has
Violence in home.   Physical symptoms/conditions that may complicate pregnancy: toxemia, preterm labor, severe nausea/vomiting, multiple gestation, gestational diabetes, severe anemia, inadequate or excessive weight gain, untreated or uncontrolled chronic illness.    Preterm infant born at or before 34 weeks.   Low birth weight (2,499 g/ 5 lbs. 8.1 ounces or less).   Prenatal drug exposure and/or a positive toxicological screen. This also includes substance-exposed children.   Infant appearing to have acute withdrawal symptoms.   Failure to thrive/feeding issues.   Maladaptive parent/infant interactions (refusing to feed, threatening infant/child, threatening to leave with infant AMA).   Newborn/infant who has physical or medical problems that may impact vital life functions including sustained hypoxia (lack of oxygen), pre or post-natal anomalies, or a life-threatening illness/condition such as respiratory distress syndrome.   Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.   Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.   Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services.   Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.   Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.   Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.   Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.   Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.			·
Physical symptoms/conditions that may complicate pregnancy: toxemia, preterm labor, severe nausea/vomiting, multiple gestation, gestational diabetes, severe anemia, inadequate or excessive weight gain, untreated or uncontrolled chronic illness.  Children  Preterm infant born at or before 34 weeks.  Low birth weight (2,499 g/5 lbs. 8.1 ounces or less).  Prenatal drug exposure and/or a positive toxicological screen. This also includes substance-exposed children.  Infant appearing to have acute withdrawal symptoms.  Failure to thrive/feeding issues.  Maladaptive parent/infant interactions (refusing to feed, threatening infant/child, threatening to leave with infant AMA).  Newborn/infant who has physical or medical problems that may impact vital life functions including sustained hypoxia (lack of oxygen), pre or post-natal anomalies, or a life-threatening illness/condition such as respiratory distress syndrome.  Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.  Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.  Caretaker is medically non-compliant due to barriers in accessing care.  Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.  At Risk  Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.  Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.  Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.  Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.  One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.
nausea/vomiting, multiple gestation, gestational diabetes, severe anemia, inadequate or excessive weight gain, untreated or uncontrolled chronic illness.  Children O-18 Preterm infant born at or before 34 weeks. Low birth weight (2,499 g/ 5 lbs. 8.1 ounces or less). Prenatal drug exposure and/or a positive toxicological screen. This also includes substance-exposed children. Infant appearing to have acute withdrawal symptoms. Failure to thrive/feeding issues. Maladaptive parent/infant interactions (refusing to feed, threatening infant/child, threatening to leave with infant AMA). Newborn/infant who has physical or medical problems that may impact vital life functions including sustained hypoxia (lack of oxygen), pre or post-natal anomalies, or a life-threatening illness/condition such as respiratory distress syndrome. Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages. Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages. Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services. Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.  At Risk Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services. Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues. Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers. Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.  Cone or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.
excessive weight gain, untreated or uncontrolled chronic illness.  Children 0-18  Preterm infant born at or before 34 weeks.  Dow birth weight (2,499 g/ 5 lbs. 8.1 ounces or less).  Prenatal drug exposure and/or a positive toxicological screen. This also includes substance-exposed children.  Infant appearing to have acute withdrawal symptoms. Failure to thrive/feeding issues.  Maladaptive parent/infant interactions (refusing to feed, threatening infant/child, threatening to leave with infant AMA).  Newborn/infant who has physical or medical problems that may impact vital life functions including sustained hypoxia (lack of oxygen), pre or post-natal anomalies, or a life-threatening illness/condition such as respiratory distress syndrome.  Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.  Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.  Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services.  Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.  At Risk Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.  Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.  Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.  Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.  One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.
Preterm infant born at or before 34 weeks.
Dow birth weight (2,499 g/ 5 lbs. 8.1 ounces or less).   Prenatal drug exposure and/or a positive toxicological screen. This also includes substance-exposed children.   Infant appearing to have acute withdrawal symptoms.   Failure to thrive/feeding issues.   Maladaptive parent/infant interactions (refusing to feed, threatening infant/child, threatening to leave with infant AMA).   Newborn/infant who has physical or medical problems that may impact vital life functions including sustained hypoxia (lack of oxygen), pre or post-natal anomalies, or a life-threatening illness/condition such as respiratory distress syndrome.   Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.   Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.   Caretaker is medically non-compliant due to barriers in accessing care.   Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services.   Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.   Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.   Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.   Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.   Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.   Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.   One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.	Children
Prenatal drug exposure and/or a positive toxicological screen. This also includes substance-exposed children.  □ Infant appearing to have acute withdrawal symptoms.  Failure to thrive/feeding issues.  □ Maladaptive parent/infant interactions (refusing to feed, threatening infant/child, threatening to leave with infant AMA).  □ Newborn/infant who has physical or medical problems that may impact vital life functions including sustained hypoxia (lack of oxygen), pre or post-natal anomalies, or a life-threatening illness/condition such as respiratory distress syndrome.  □ Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.  □ Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.  □ Caretaker is medically non-compliant due to barriers in accessing care.  □ Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services.  □ Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.  At Risk  □ Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.  □ Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.  □ Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.  □ Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.  □ One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.
exposed children.  Infant appearing to have acute withdrawal symptoms. Failure to thrive/feeding issues.  Maladaptive parent/infant interactions (refusing to feed, threatening infant/child, threatening to leave with infant AMA).  Newborn/infant who has physical or medical problems that may impact vital life functions including sustained hypoxia (lack of oxygen), pre or post-natal anomalies, or a life-threatening illness/condition such as respiratory distress syndrome.  Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages. Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages. Caretaker is medically non-compliant due to barriers in accessing care. Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services. Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.  At Risk Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services. Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues. Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers. Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations. One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.	0-18
Infant appearing to have acute withdrawal symptoms.   Failure to thrive/feeding issues.   Maladaptive parent/infant interactions (refusing to feed, threatening infant/child, threatening to leave with infant AMA).   Newborn/infant who has physical or medical problems that may impact vital life functions including sustained hypoxia (lack of oxygen), pre or post-natal anomalies, or a life-threatening illness/condition such as respiratory distress syndrome.   Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.   Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.   Caretaker is medically non-compliant due to barriers in accessing care.   Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services.   Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.  At Risk   Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.   Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.   Pamily has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.   Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.   One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.
<ul> <li>□ Failure to thrive/feeding issues.</li> <li>□ Maladaptive parent/infant interactions (refusing to feed, threatening infant/child, threatening to leave with infant AMA).</li> <li>□ Newborn/infant who has physical or medical problems that may impact vital life functions including sustained hypoxia (lack of oxygen), pre or post-natal anomalies, or a life-threatening illness/condition such as respiratory distress syndrome.</li> <li>□ Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.</li> <li>□ Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.</li> <li>□ Caretaker is medically non-compliant due to barriers in accessing care.</li> <li>□ Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services.</li> <li>□ Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.</li> <li>At Risk</li> <li>□ Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.</li> <li>□ Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.</li> <li>□ Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.</li> <li>□ Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.</li> <li>□ One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.</li> </ul>		П	·
<ul> <li>□ Maladaptive parent/infant interactions (refusing to feed, threatening infant/child, threatening to leave with infant AMA).</li> <li>□ Newborn/infant who has physical or medical problems that may impact vital life functions including sustained hypoxia (lack of oxygen), pre or post-natal anomalies, or a life-threatening illness/condition such as respiratory distress syndrome.</li> <li>□ Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.</li> <li>□ Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.</li> <li>□ Caretaker is medically non-compliant due to barriers in accessing care.</li> <li>□ Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services.</li> <li>□ Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.</li> <li>At Risk</li> <li>□ Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.</li> <li>□ Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.</li> <li>□ Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.</li> <li>□ Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.</li> <li>□ One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Newborn/infant who has physical or medical problems that may impact vital life functions including sustained hypoxia (lack of oxygen), pre or post-natal anomalies, or a life-threatening illness/condition such as respiratory distress syndrome.</li> <li>Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.</li> <li>Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.</li> <li>Caretaker is medically non-compliant due to barriers in accessing care.</li> <li>Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services.</li> <li>Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.</li> <li>At Risk</li> <li>Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.</li> <li>Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.</li> <li>Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.</li> <li>Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.</li> <li>One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.</li> </ul>			Maladaptive parent/infant interactions (refusing to feed, threatening infant/child, threatening to leave sustained hypoxia (lack of oxygen), pre or post-natal anomalies, or a life-threatening illness/condition such as respiratory distress syndrome.    Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.     Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.     Caretaker is medically non-compliant due to barriers in accessing care.     Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services.     Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.     Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.     Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.     Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.     Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.     One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.			·
such as respiratory distress syndrome.    Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.   Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.   Caretaker is medically non-compliant due to barriers in accessing care.   Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services.   Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.    Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.   Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.   Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.   Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.   One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.		Ш	, , ,
<ul> <li>□ Severe medical conditions not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.</li> <li>□ Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.</li> <li>□ Caretaker is medically non-compliant due to barriers in accessing care.</li> <li>□ Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services.</li> <li>□ Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.</li> <li>At Risk</li> <li>□ Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.</li> <li>□ Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.</li> <li>□ Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.</li> <li>□ Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.</li> <li>□ One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>□ Child/Adolescent with developmental delays not addressed by specialty care providers; needs linkages.</li> <li>□ Caretaker is medically non-compliant due to barriers in accessing care.</li> <li>□ Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services.</li> <li>□ Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.</li> <li>At Risk</li> <li>□ Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.</li> <li>□ Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.</li> <li>□ Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.</li> <li>□ Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.</li> <li>□ One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.</li> </ul>		п
<ul> <li>□ Caretaker is medically non-compliant due to barriers in accessing care.</li> <li>□ Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services.</li> <li>□ Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.</li> <li>At Risk</li> <li>□ Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.</li> <li>□ Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.</li> <li>□ Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.</li> <li>□ Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.</li> <li>□ One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>□ Caretaker has significant learning/developmental delays not addressed by intervention services.</li> <li>□ Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.</li> <li>□ Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.</li> <li>□ Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.</li> <li>□ Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.</li> <li>□ Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.</li> <li>□ One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>□ Caretaker has a psychiatric disorder that puts the child at risk.</li> <li>At Risk</li> <li>□ Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.</li> <li>□ Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.</li> <li>□ Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.</li> <li>□ Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.</li> <li>□ One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.</li> </ul>			· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
At Risk Families  Infant or child under 18 years with possible developmental delays and not receiving early intervention services.  □ Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.  □ Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.  □ Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.  □ One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.
intervention services.  Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.  Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.  Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.  One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.	At Risk		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
<ul> <li>Parent/caregiver has unrealistic expectations or perceptions of infant/child's behavior or development; unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.</li> <li>Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.</li> <li>Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.</li> <li>One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>unresponsive to infant/child's needs and/ or needs specialized education regarding infant/child care, nutrition, and/or safety issues.</li> <li>Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.</li> <li>Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.</li> <li>One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>nutrition, and/or safety issues.</li> <li>Family has one or more barriers to accessing basic needs, including: community resources, insurance, health care providers.</li> <li>Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.</li> <li>One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.</li> </ul>			· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
<ul> <li>insurance, health care providers.</li> <li>Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.</li> <li>One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.</li> </ul>			·
<ul> <li>insurance, health care providers.</li> <li>Family has challenges in following through with appointments and/or health provider recommendations.</li> <li>One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.</li> </ul>			· recommendations.  One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.
<ul> <li>One or more household members engage in at-risk behaviors including: substance misuse, gang involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.</li> </ul> involvement, violent behaviors, and/or unprotected sex.
<ul> <li>Potential for or past history of domestic or intimate partner violence.</li> </ul>
☐ Family has minimal coping or problem-solving skills.			· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
☐ Family does not have an identifiable support network.			Family does not have an identifiable support network.

For Internal Use- Notes: